

Planning for the 25th and 26th March 2021

Well we have almost made it to the Easter holidays. Well done everyone. Hats off to you homeschooling!

I have 8 ideas here to take you to the end of term:

1 Cut out some speech bubbles for the animals in the jungle box. Make them say anything at all! Ask the children to write the words for the animals to say inside the speech bubble cut-outs. It might be an animal sound or just one word or a sentence. Look over prior planning for ideas of what they might say.

2 Record a short video, if you can, or take a series of photographs (maybe using the speech bubbles above) in the jungle. Send these to me and I will pass them onto our co-ordinator of “Yn Rollage”. It would be wonderful to feature our year group in this magazine.

When making films and taking photos the children need to consider the camera angle and prepare where they are going to sit so we can see them in the images/films and how to plan out the story (even if it is one sentence they say/do/act out) and use Manx for this purpose.

3 Write a story about the jungle box. Allow the children to just write without rules (as with other free story writing). Can they read it back?
Send these examples to me also if you can.

4 Science - Record on a sheet of paper some of the ramps they have been experimenting with. Take pictures and make a collage if you can (but hand drawn easy shape images are fine - esp if you have no printer).

Add labels like - ard (tall), talley (tall) injil (low), downin (low), garroo (rough), rea (flat/smooth).
And if the roller travelled: tappee (fast) or moal (slow)

5 Maddaght - writing the number 9. I start with a curly-'c' in the air hovering above any line and then complete a circle in the air and drop a stick down.

Jean 'c' erskyn er linney as maidjey lurg:
say - gin-c-er-skin-er-lin-yuh-as-maj-er-lerg
(Do a 'c' above the line and a stick afterwards)

After experimenting with drawing number 9 - sand tray, beach, foam in a tray (as in prior planning) draw out faint number 9 9 9 9 9 9's and ask them to go over before trying themselves to do some without help.

NB:- note the computer 9 is not the one we write but we need to know about them both.

6 Revise and revisit the Yoga 10min film. Change for PE correctly and call out the names of the moves as they come up on the screen. Being creative: are there any moves that can be done holding a ball at the same time? Investigate this.

7 DT/Craft skills for fine motor skills

(a) Draw anything on paper with a pencil. Using a rubber - rub it all out!

(b) Find a range of pens and containers with lids and remove and replace them without help (this can be frustrating for them). Test all the door handles/ cupboards and knobs in the house and check they can open and close them all correctly including any with keys (they may need to stand on something!)

(c) Try pencil sharpeners, scissors and finish with satisfying controlled ripping up of paper. Can they do this in straight line? Can they rip out a rough square shape? Any other shapes?

Prow y phen - try the pen - say - pr-ow-uh-fen

Prow y farkal (Prow un 'arkle) - try the lid

Pr-ow-uh-far-kul (pr-ow-un-ark-ul)

Prow y dorrays - try the door - pr-ow-un-Dorris

Prow yn ogher - try the key - pr-ow-un-or-ker

Raiphey eh - rip it - say - ray-up-uh-ay

giarrey eh - cut it - say - g-air-ruh-ay

birraghey eh- sharpen it - say - bir-ack-er-ay

chyndaa eh - turn it - say - chin-dare-ay

8 Make Easter bunnies and write on them a note to all the family and friends they want to send them too.

Draw around a hand each time and cut them out as best you can (can use your hand to get bigger bunnies and make bunny families!)

Chop the middle finger out and fold in the thumb and little finger. Make it look like a bunny! See below example. Enjoy 🐰🐇

Conning - rabbit - say - cun-ying

Caisht - Easter - say - Kay-sh-t

Conning Caisht - Easter Bunny

Caisht sonney dyht - Happy Easter to you (if there is one person) - say Kay-sh-t-s-on-er-dut

Caisht sonney diu - Happy Easter to you all (more than one person) say - kay-sh-t-s-on-er-dew

Caisht Sonney diu - Bnr Blindell (Ruth)
